

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title SENIOR STRUCTURAL DESIGN ENGINEER

Reporting Structure

The post holder reports to the Technical Director but with ultimate responsibility to the Managing Director.

Management Responsibility

The post holder is required to communicate design information to clients, architects or their nominated representative, suppliers and relevant members of the company staff. They will also control and manage large and small contracts and report on contracts to senior management.

Main Duties

- To work independently and as part of a team.
- To attend site for the purpose of carrying out surveys, site investigations and attending meetings as required.
- Liaise with clients, their representatives, consultants, suppliers and sub- contractors in order to convey design information, receive and interpret data and solve any problems relating to company services.
- Design to be carried out in the timescales appropriate to the project.
- Liaise with colleagues if required to determine solutions to engineering problems.
- To carry out any other duties as deemed appropriate by senior management.

General Duties

- The post holder must conduct themselves in accordance with their contract of employment.
- The post holder must to the best of his/her knowledge and experience carry out work in such a manner as not to endanger their own health & safety and that of the colleagues, the company's clients, the general public or our suppliers.
- The post holder is required to do their best to ensure that they protect and enhance the company's commercial and financial wellbeing and reputation
- The post holder must be computer literate
- The Post holder must have a minimum of 6 years' experience working with British Standards and Eurocodes within the UK.

Qualifications

- The post holder will be a chartered or nearing chartered status structural engineer